

Why a Native Planet jersey?

Native Planet (www.nativeplanet.org) is a Seattle-based not-for-profit organization. By buying and wearing this high quality jersey, you are helping us raise both funds and awareness to protect traditional/indigenous people, promote their self-empowerment and preserve their lands and lifestyles, worldwide.

Design

International designer Sayuri Watanabe created these innovative jerseys for us using input from the avid Team Native Planet cyclists. Each one has:

- A classy, unique look that will set you apart from the crowd every time
- High visibility design and colors for increased safety
- A traditional indigenous tattoo design on the side of the chest, over the shoulders and onto the back.

Features

Manufactured by VOMax, producers of the Cascade Bicycle club jerseys and other superior products, their quality workmanship includes:

- MICRODRY® 100%-polyester technical jersey fabric made in the USA to keep you cool, dry and stylish through the cycling seasons
- Short raglan sleeves, a high collar and a 22-inch long hidden zipper for extra breatheability on hot days and a better look everyday.

Every level of cyclist will enjoy the aesthetic impact, features and quality of this unique jersey. It is priced competitively at $80 and by wearing it, you are supporting Native Planet's work with traditional and indigenous communities. Time is short, quantities are limited and this jersey is essential!
